MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD

Kendra Davis

It is not uncommon for a guest to visit the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie for the first time and exclaim that they are surprised that such a building and institution exists in Grande Prairie. It has been a great honour to be Chair of the Prairie Gallery Society that governs the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie for the last three years. As my time on the Board is ending, please allow me to draw your attention to the people and organizations that contribute to the success of the Gallery.

The City of Grande Prairie continues to be an incredibly generous funder. The Gallery has been privileged to have both operational and facility support provided by the City. We are grateful for the relationships established with the Mayor and Council Members.

The Gallery has also received significant considerations from the County of Grande Prairie, the Municipal District of Greenview, and the Alberta Foundation for the Arts; and we are thankful that these funding organizations have found value in the work of the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie. The Gallery continues to bring the art experience not just to the residents of the city of Grande Prairie, but to many surrounding areas. We are privileged to have extraordinary artists in the Peace region, and many have chosen to contribute to and support the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie. Thank you to this gracious community, who give of themselves and their time and work, time and time again. Your support is such an encouragement.

Corporate and personal sponsorships play a large role in funding exhibitions and events at the Gallery. There are many individuals who have donated on their own or with their company to bring choice programming and experiences to all of the Gallery's visitors. Thank you.

I have been surrounded by a Board of dedicated professionals who have worked diligently to govern the Gallery. They have shown perseverance as the Board and Gallery have navigated through the past few years.

The Staff of the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie have been remarkable through these last few years – they are the bond that holds the Gallery together. I have confidence that the Gallery will continue to progress under Executive Director Jeff Erbach and look forward to seeing the advancement under his management.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Jeff Erbach

In February, 2016, I relocated to Grande Prairie to begin work at the Gallery. This was the tail end of the 2016/17 year, but what was immediate to me was the incredible dedication and commitment on behalf of the Gallery's partners, funders, donors, volunteers, staff and the broad community support for the Gallery and its mission.

For the 2016/17 year, the organization remains in a strong and stable financial position, able to meet its daily challenges and to tackle some large-scale projects, like the continued touring of A Sublime Vernacular: the Landscape Paintings of Levine Flexhaug. The facility offers exciting opportunities in the Arts, and our programming balance of local, regional, and national/international artists showcased our commitment to emerging local talent while exhibiting unique and challenging works that otherwise would not be seen in our District and County.

Of course, the community is at the heart of everything we do, and all of the trends were positive. Attendance continued to grow for all of our distinctive services, from our Gallery exhibitions through to our programs and learning opportunities. By most measures, the year was a success and saw the Gallery well positioned to advance its reputation. It also signals that the Gallery must be adaptive and resilient to the pressures of growth while still delivering on meaningful cultural, social and economic benefits that are the earmarks of a lasting, vibrant organization.

I'm excited for the future and for what we've already been accomplishing since the close of our 2016/17 year. You'll be seeing some exciting changes to your experience as a visitor, and more opportunities to associate with us in building the type of community we're all proud to call home.

Through this year, the Board of Directors worked to strengthen the Gallery's core operations and sustainability by dedicating itself to developing some core statements which could guide the organization in its work. These statements, of Vision, Purpose and Mission, along with both Curatorial and Collections Mandates, served to focus the efforts of staff, budget and the necessity of more detailed policies into the future.

VISION

The Art Gallery of Grande Prairie will be recognized as a leader in the areas of Visitor Experience, Financial Sustainability, and Institutional stability.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie is to serve the Peace Country Region of north-western Alberta and north-eastern British Columbia by establishing and maintaining a public art gallery, collecting and preserving works of cultural property for exhibition to the public. The Art Gallery of Grande Prairie offers inspiration through the preservation and exploration of works of art, and by critically reflecting on ideas in modern society.

MISSION

The Mission of the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie is to build and to share the art experience.

EXHIBITIONS AND COLLECTIONS

Message from Doug Wills
Associate Curator / Interim Director

The Art Gallery of Grande Prairie undertook an ambitious schedule of exhibitions in 2016 - 2017. In March Shelley Ouellet traveled to Grande Prairie to orchestrate the installation of her popular Alberta Foundation for the Arts piece, Entomology. Nearly 10,000 rubber bugs hung from a metal grid below the glass bridge in Gallery 3 to form one enormous insect. The Mattson's (Emilie, Karl, and Dean) transported fragile sculptures of glass, paper, and cow placenta and huge, repurposed metal storage containers from Rolla, BC.

In the summer, Clint Neufeld delivered his exhibition of cast ceramic, life-size car and truck engines along with their untraditional supports including chaise lounges and antique side boards.

Fall saw the return of the Gallery's own national touring exhibition A Sublime Vernacular: The Landscape Paintings of Levine Flexhaug. Nearly 460 paintings were on display and guest curators Nancy Tousley and Peter White were in attendance and conducted a 5-person panel discussion the day after the opening.

Edmonton artist Sean Caulfield was at the Gallery late-December to assist with his large-scale, multi-paneled piece The Flood. Thirty feet long and twenty feet high, the piece captivated gallery visitors with both its content and scale.

All the exhibitions were possible with commitment to excellence by the artists and ongoing support of the Grande Prairie and Peace region community.

PERMANENT COLLECTION

The Art Gallery of Grande Prairie's Permanent Collection currently stands at approximately 750 works of art, almost exclusively created in Alberta in the mid to late 20th Century. Designated as a 'Category A' Institution by the Movable Cultural Properties Directorate of Canadian Heritage, the Gallery is permitted to receive art donations of outstanding significance and national importance due to our strict climate, safety and security controls. In this year, we were fortunate enough to acquire a diverse range of pieces through our donations policy and are incredibly grateful to all the artists, collectors and donors who contributed to the Collection.

Manager/Curator, Travelling Exhibitions

The Alberta Foundation for the Arts (AFA) has supported a provincial travelling exhibition program since 1981. The mandate of the AFA Travelling Exhibition Program is to provide every Albertan with the opportunity to enjoy visual art exhibitions in their community.

Three regional galleries and one arts organization coordinate the program for the AFA in the province of Alberta.

This program has been highly successful and sought after over the years. The exhibitions book up quickly and this past year was no exception. With 15 individual exhibitions on view for a total of 85 time slots this past year and with 98% of the slots booked, this program continues to be popular with both school and community venues alike. During the school months these exhibitions provide educational opportunities for school programs and curricula, as well as visual enrichment to both students and adults.

Three new exhibitions were curated last year Larissa Tiggelers something now as different than before, Blair Brennan: White Nurse, and Kleskun Hills: Views and Viewpoints. The latter exhibition portrays the unique badlands just east of Grande Prairie and features three local artists, Helena Mulligan, Naomi Deutekom, and Teresa Durand, which was a popular exhibition this year.

The Art Gallery of Grande Prairie is contracted by the Alberta Foundation for the Arts to manage and facilitate the program in Region 1, North Western Alberta, and has been involved with the program since the beginning. We strive to maintain the high standards the program has become known for and continue to support Alberta's talented artists.

EDUCATION AND PUBLIC PROGRAMS

Sabine Schneider

Curator, Education and Public Programs

After tremendous growth in the past several years, the learning department thrived again this year as our programs continue to invite and inspire visitors of all ages and from all walks of life. We offer a well-balanced program mix to diverse audiences that is sensitive to community needs and enriches our visitors' experiences.

From April 2016 – March 2017 participation was strong with a total of 10,795 participants who joined us for 93 programs. Our existing programs that continued to flourish were The Carlstrom Family Green Space, Interpretive Programs for School and Community Groups, Art Quest, Art for the Curious, Artist Presentations, and Community Art Events. We are delighted that we have quintupled visitation in The Carlstrom Family Green Space in the past four years!

THE CARLSTROM FAMILY GREEN SPACE

The Carlstrom Family Green Space is a dedicated space to the interactive exploration of, and response to, art. Free art activities are designed to encourage reflection, creativity and inspiration in response to the exhibitions on display. This interactive and self-directed gallery space continued to be a popular destination for children, families, youth and adults to create art and be inspired. Visitors are always eager to contribute their artworks to community art projects. Transform and Repeat sparked inspiration offering visual surprises on many levels. Transform drew from both Shelley Ouellet's giant rubber bug installation Entomology and Deb Courvoisier's exhibition A Conspiracy. Also, many Flexie pop-ups came to life in the Repeat community art piece which was based on the landscape paintings by Levine Flexhaug and his exhibition A Sublime Vernacular: The Landscape Paintings of Levine Flexhaug.

INTERPRETIVE PROGRAMS AND CAMPS

59 school and community groups explored current exhibitions through a tour and interactive activities. In collaboration with the Grande Prairie Public School Board we ran a series of our Art for the Curious, a program on selected Friday afternoons when the schools were out. In addition, we offered Art Quest: Form and Function, our 6 week-long half day Summer Art Camps. All students practiced careful observation skills and learned about interpreting art. Interactive activities in response to the exhibitions were part of their Art Gallery visit. Hands-on take-home projects provided a great way to ground and enhance student's own art experience. Principles and elements of design were emphasized and integrated in the Art Gallery's educational programs.

Art Quest focused on the theme form and function. Students, ranging in ages from 6-12 years old, who attended our summer camps were exposed to various art forms and techniques, such as drawing, painting, sculpture, mixed media, illustration and also installation art. Art Quest: Form and Function was all about igniting creative imagination and welcoming young artists to be a part of a lively studio environment. During the half-day camps, the instructors introduced new skills like mark making, painting with unconventional materials, and casting moulds. Students had the chance to experience the Art Gallery's current exhibitions and drew inspiration from them for their art projects. In the mixed media week, the students assembled a gigantic fishbowl full of textured underwater life. The fishbowl project gave the students an opportunity to collaborate and co-create. A special opportunity was provided during Emilie Grace Lavoie's two-day visiting artist workshop when the students created moulds of ginger and artichokes using dental alginate resulting in uniquely constructed sculptures. When the Art Gallery ended its summer camps, students were invited to celebrate their own artwork created throughout the summer months in an exciting student art exhibition.

“What a special space! I’m visiting from Beaumont and wish we had somewhere to go like this at home. My kids are totally engaged and having so much fun. Personally, I could sit beside this floor-to-ceiling window forever. Truly inspired.”

ARTIST PRESENTATIONS

Artist Presentations included Artist and Curator Talks as well as Exhibiting Artist Workshops. They were scheduled in conjunction with current exhibitions and provided further insight into the influences, motivation, process and history of the artist and exhibition on display. In 2016/2017 we offered 5 artist and curator talks which were appreciated by 98 participants.

When Richard Boulet visited Grande Prairie from May 3-7, 2016 during Mental Health Week he met with five different groups. He connected with two groups of adults supported by the Canadian Mental Health Association and Alberta Health Services with whom he shared his life story and his artwork and then provided an activity based on his own work. The Art Gallery also hosted a group of high school art students and the fibre artists of the Saskatoon Lake Weaver’s Guild, as well as an artist talk where the general public met Richard and learned more about his exhibition, Residuals for a One in Five.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

With the goal to integrate the art experience in everyone’s life and to reach out to all community members, special community events and projects provide an opportunity to collaborate with other organizations and to celebrate our community’s creativity. In 2016/2017 the Art Gallery took part in 3 community events (Earth Day, Alberta Culture Days and Libricon), and facilitated a community art project during each event with a total of 545 participants.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of Prairie Gallery Society

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Prairie Gallery Society, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2017, and the statements of changes in net assets, operations and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Society's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Society's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Prairie Gallery Society, in common with many charitable organizations, derives revenue from donations and fundraising revenue, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to amounts recorded in the records of the Society. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to donations and fundraising, excess of revenues over expenses, and cash flows from operations for the year ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, current assets as at March 31, 2017 and 2016, and net assets as at April 1 and March 31 for both the 2017 and 2016 years. Our audit opinion on the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2016 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of a similar limitation in scope.

Prairie Gallery Society maintains a permanent collection made up of donated items which are recorded at their appraised values and purchased items are recorded at cost. The Society does not maintain a complete catalogue of the items which comprise the permanent collection with values. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to the permanent collection as at March 31, 2017 and 2016, and net assets as at April 1 and March 31 for both the 2017 and 2016 years.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraphs, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Prairie Gallery Society as at March 31, 2017 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Emphasis of Matter

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 7 to the financial statements, which explains that certain comparative information for the year ended March 31, 2016 has been restated.

Notes to the Financial Statements

Purpose of the Society

Prairie Gallery Society (Society) is a registered charity operating a public art gallery aimed at promoting visual arts in Grande Prairie. The organization is exempt from tax under section 149 of the Income Tax Act.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are prepared by management in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

The significant accounting policies used are as follows:

Accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenditures during the reported period. These estimates are reviewed periodically and are reported in earnings in the period in which they become known. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. The Society provides for amortization using the declining balance method at rates designed to amortize the cost of the capital assets over their estimated useful lives. No amortization is recorded in the year of disposal. The annual amortization rates are as follows:

Asset	Rate
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Computer equipment	55%

In the year of acquisition, amortization is applied at half of normal rates.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Financial instruments

The Society initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value adjusted by, in the case of a financial instrument that will not be measured subsequently at fair value, the amount of transaction costs directly attributable to the instrument. Amounts due to and from related parties are measured at the exchange amount, being the amount agreed on by the related parties.

The Society subsequently measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for derivatives and equity securities quoted in an active market, which are subsequently measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in operations.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost are tested for impairment when there are indicators of possible impairment. When a significant adverse change has occurred during the period in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows from the financial asset or group of assets, a write-down is recognized in operations.

Permanent collection

The permanent collection consists largely of donated items which are recorded at their appraised values as determined or approved by the Society's curator at the time of acquisition. Purchased items are recorded at cost.

Revenue recognition

The Society follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenditures are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable when the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. In-kind donations to the permanent collection are reported as direct increases in net assets. All other donations are reported as revenue of the current period.

Contributed services

Volunteers contributed time to assist the Society in carrying out its activities. Because of the difficulty of determining their fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

2. Gallery investment fund

The Gallery investment fund consists of the following, measured at fair market value:

	2017	2016
Cash	$ 581	$ 6,261
Marketable securities	1,175,928	1,088,170
	$ 1,176,509	$ 1,094,431

The Board of Directors has internally restricted $200,000 of the investments funds, as required by the guidelines of the Alberta Foundation for the Arts. The cash is unencumbered and can only be accessed upon a resolution with a majority vote of the Society's Board of Directors and may only be used to temporarily fund unforeseen operating deficits. Funds removed from the cash reserve must be replenished within three fiscal years from the end of the fiscal year in which the funds were utilized.

This year $20,000 of the unrestricted portion of the gallery investment fund was made available for operational use.

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The Society is exposed to this price risk in the marketable securities it holds in the Gallery investment fund.

3. Capital assets

	2017			2016
	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net	Net
Furniture and fixtures	$ 332,082	$ 264,780	$ 67,302	$ 84,128
Computer equipment	66,368	63,848	2,520	1,750
	$ 398,450	$ 328,628	$ 69,822	$ 85,878

4. Permanent collection

The permanent collection contains artworks created primarily by Albertan artists which have been acquired through purchase or donation. The collection currently stands at 430 works of art comprised of two distinct components: Historic and Contemporary Canadian Art. Over the years the gallery has amassed individual pieces and bodies of work in many mediums including ceramic, painting, photography, woodworking, sculpture, tapestry, fibre arts, multimedia works and video.

During the year $98,900 (2016 - $31,000) worth of artworks were donated in kind to the permanent collection.

5. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities

6. Deferred revenue

Deferred grant revenue relates to government grants and funds which were unearned at the end of the year, and fundraising and membership revenues for the next year already received.

	2017	2016
Balance, beginning of year	$ 314,977	$ 311,468
Revenue recognized during the period	(407,645)	(417,129)
Deferred revenue received	412,093	421,279
	$ 319,425	$ 315,618

7. Prior period adjustment

The comparative figures have been retroactively restated by management with respect to errors in the previously recorded accounts payable and accrued liabilities balance. Within this balance, the vacation pay and banked hours payable balance was misstated as noted below.

At March 31, 2015, the balance of vacation pay and banked hours payable was $28,294, which was not recognized as a liability in the financial statements. As a result of correcting this error, net assets at the beginning of the year ended March 31, 2016 decreased by $28,294.

At March 31, 2016, the balance of vacation pay and banked hours payable was $49,781, while the amount previously recognized as a liability in the financial statements was $7,468. As a result of correcting this error, net assets at March 31, 2016 decreased by $42,313. $28,294 of this decrease was reflected in the opening net assets, with the difference of $14,019 being reflected through increased salaries and related benefits expense for the year ended March 31, 2016. Correspondingly, accounts payable and accrued liabilities as at March 31, 2016 increased by $42,313 as a result.

March 31, 2016	Previously reported	Adjustments	Restated
Statement of Operations
Increase in salaries and related benefits	$ 454,394	$ 14,019	$ 468,412
Statement of Financial Position
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	$ 34,115	$ 42,313	$ 76,428

8. Operating loan

The Society has an operating loan available by way of account overdraft with a maximum of $125,000. The balance of the operating loan at the year-end was $nil.

The operating loan is secured by a general security agreement covering all assets of the Society. Interest is at RBC prime plus 2.85%.
