

Welcome to the 2024-2025 Travelling Exhibitions Northwest Program! Below you'll find some quick, helpful descriptions of what the program is and why it could work for your space.

WHAT is the Travelling Exhibitions (TREX) Program?

The Alberta Foundation for the Arts (AFA) has supported a provincial travelling exhibitions (TREX) program since 1981 to provide as many communities as possible across Alberta with the opportunity to see high calibre visual art exhibitions. Exhibition themes are varied to suit every audience, with historic and contemporary artwork in a wide range of media. Each exhibition comes with an educator's guide that provides exhibition details, curriculum connections, creative lesson plans, and relevant historical information. Exhibitions are designed for ease of handling and may be displayed in different ways depending on the type and amount of space available.

WHO is TREX for?

TREX partners with community venues including schools, libraries, theaters, archives, museums, community centres, tourism centres, hospitals and health centres. For a list of some of our previous venue partners, see the reverse side of this page. TREX shows are designed to be adapted to different spaces, and to be incorporated into community programming and school lesson plans easily.

WHY book TREX programs?

A large goal of the TREX program is to deliver engaging art experiences directly into communities, especially those outside of major city centres, with minimal cost to the venues. Exposure to art has immense social and cultural benefits for communities, including encouraging literacy, illuminating new social perspectives, promoting curiosity and higher learning, supporting general well-being, nurturing volunteerism and community caring, creating inter-cultural dialogue, and strengthening quality of life. TREX educational guides offer further avenues of community engagement and learning as well. See statements from our previous venue on the reverse side.

HOW do bookings work?

The TREX program covers almost all costs associated with the exhibitions, including shipping and insurance. There is only a 75$ administrative fee for each month-long exhibition booking. This year we have 14 diverse exhibitions to choose from, which can be found in the 2024-2025 TREX NW booking catalogue. To book an exhibit, simply fill in the request form located at AGGP.CA and email it to Curator/Manager Jamie-Lee Cormier at jamie-lee@aggp.ca

Venue Statements:

"We really enjoyed this exhibit. The pictures were awesome and anyone who came into our school thought the artist did an amazing job capturing winter scenes. Truly an great exhibit. Thank you!"

(About TRES Now is Winter, 2022/2023)

"Everyone in our building had really positive comments about the exhibit. They loved the brightness that it brought to the hallway and the new perspective for students to learn from."

(About TRES Bring a folding chair... 2022/2023)

"The exhibition was well loved by students & staff. Watercolour is a medium that is easy for students and schools to engage with and connect to their curriculum. The focus on abstraction and memory was a beautiful way to teach students to express their ideas through their art."
